

FIRM DESCRIPTION

North Bay Seismic Design is a small structural design firm based on the coast of Marin, on the north side of the San Francisco Bay in California. It is a Sole Proprietorship owned by Alistair Lizaranzu, P.E., specializing on the design and retrofit of bridge or building structures in earthquake regions.

North Bay Seismic Design has the following registrations:

- Disadvantaged Business Entity (DBE), BART CA Unified Certification Program 37558
- Small Business and Micro-Small Business Entity, BART Certification #1040
- State of California Small Business Certification 1263640
- Central Contract Registration (CCR), DUNS 961726549

North Bay Seismic Design performs the following Federal services:

- 541330 Engineering Services
- 541340 Engineering Drafting Services
- 541350 Building Inspection Services